successful and that our time is spent more effectively?

A Problem of Practice should be the focus for [illegible] Educators [illegible] a meaningful Problem of Practice. It is something staff genuinely doesn't know how to do and is motivated to learn more about and get better at.

A rich Problem of Practice:

- [illegible]

that we can [illegible] something [illegible] we are considering observ[illegible]

[illegible] about their self-assessment from professional development and early implementation actions, etc). The questions provide guidance to [illegible] on what they should be reading in the POP. They have been included here as a [illegible] result of staff success[illegible] addressing a [illegible] and [illegible] the fact that addressing a Problem of Practice [illegible] onal [illegible]